Revenues	FY 2019	FY 2020	FY 2021
Dedicated Credits	$0	$116,100	$0
Total Revenues	$0	$116,100	$0

Enactment of this bill could increase dedicated credit revenue to the Office of the Attorney General by $116,100 in FY 2020 for legal analysis and document preparation. Where applicable, this bill could have the following impacts to the following accounts by an unknown amount: (1) decrease to the Public Safety Restricted Account - $32/applicant/instance for driver license renewal; (2) increase to Department of Corrections (DOC) dedicated credits - $168/applicant for registry removal; (3) increase to DOC dedicated credits - $25/applicant for an eligibility certificate; and (4) decrease to DOC dedicated credits - $100/sex offender registrant/year.

Expenditures	FY 2019	FY 2020	FY 2021
General Fund	$0	$146,000	$146,000
General Fund, One-Time	$0	$141,100	$0
Dedicated Credits	$0	$116,100	$17,400
Dept. of Public Safety Rest. Acct.	$2,400	$0	$0
Total Expenditures	$2,400	$403,200	$163,400

Enactment of this bill could cost the Department of Corrections from the General Fund about $287,000 in FY 2020 and $146,000 each year thereafter for database changes, research and compliance costs (of which $116,100 one-time in FY 2020 is paid to the Attorney General in dedicated credits). The Attorney General reports they can absorb up to an additional $17,400 ongoing beginning in FY 2021 in dedicated credits costs. In addition, this could cost the Department of Public Safety $2,400 one-time from the Public Safety Restricted Account in FY 2019 for programming changes.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
